HP M27 Webcam Monitor

Work. School. Fun.
It all looks good from here.

Welcome home to your window of the world. Top-quality picture with a 5MP camera, amazing sound and sleek design makes this elegant 27-inch monitor become the centerpiece of your connected daily life

Product overview

- Look and sound better then ever: Behold the new 27-inch conferencing monitor with an integrated 5 megapixel camera and behold…yourself. That's nearly twice the resolution of a standard webcam. Just hop on your call and hold on tight, the compliments will be coming in hot. Enjoy rich audio and noise-cancelling dual microphones so you can sound as good as you look. There's also a physical sliding camera cover so you can ensure your camera is off when you need it to be.
- Make yourself look and sound like yourself: Make yourself look as good as you should. HP Display Center gives you control of how you look and sound. Adjust camera settings and use the preview window to dial in your picture to perfection.
- Clear desk. Clear mind. Connect with success and disconnect from the mess with a simple, Works With Chromebook certified setup. Because it's WWCB certified, your monitor simply works with your Chromebook and other Chrome OS devices.(13) A seamless integrated conferencing set up using one USB-C® cable. Easily connect your peripherals to the monitor's port hub, sleekly tucked in behind. Now that's the picture of simplicity.
- Designed for comfort: When you set up the perfect work environment, you deserve to be comfortable. Adjust the height just right, swivel the angle into position. Yes, the design is easy on the eyes, but it's also designed to reduced eye strain with HP Eye Ease with Eyesafe® Certification.(6)
- Looks Good. Does Good. Both the display and stand are made with 85% PCR (post-consumer recyclables) with 5% OBP(10) (ocean-bound plastics) and the packaging is sustainably sourced and recyclable.(9) Why? Because we care. And we know you care.
