Making the Connection

1. Connect the ALOGIC USB-C to USB 3.0 + USB-C Combo Hub to any available USB-C port on your computer. Connection to USB-C port will result in most optimum performance. The device is backwards compatible with USB 2.0 Ports as well but will not perform at higher USB 3.0 speed.

2. The ALOGIC USB-C Combo Hub once connected will automatically install the required drivers. A message on your computer task bar may notify you once the drivers have been installed and your device is ready for use.

3. After this you can connect the adapter to various USB peripherals for use as per requirement.
